

ACTIVE RIGHTS BRING....

Frequent question:
What is DIRECT DEMOCRACY?

It's about being able to decide on public ISSUES as well as voting for candidates and parties once every few years.

People can put forward a well-supported proposal for public debate and if necessary the proposal can be put for decision by referendum to all members of the community, town, city or country.

All political power belongs to THE PEOPLE. Direct democracy provides us with practical ways to use our power. If need be we can overrule parliament and government.
