

ACTIVE RIGHTS BRING....

Frequent question:
What is DIRECT DEMOCRACY?

It's about being able to decide on public ISSUES as well as voting for candidates and parties once every few years.

People can put forward a well-supported proposal for public debate and if necessary the proposal can be put for decision by referendum to all members of the community, town, city or country.

...POLITICAL RESPONSIBILITY

CONTACT

www.iniref.org/ballot.html Ballot for our right to referendum blog.html BLOG INIREF case.html Renew Democracy with I&R The case for introducing elements of direct democracy in GB+NI

TAKE PART

climate-ballot.html Climate Pollution Citizens' initiative on greenhouse gases: A suitable case for referendum? colour.html SOCIAL MOVEMENTS NEED STRONG DEMOCRACY

DO-IT-YOURSELF

learn.html Background Papers E-Forum Databanks map.html guide to web site content swiss-home.htm Swiss democracy and governance partner.html tasks work volunteer help

info@iniref.org

www.iniref.org